Heart In 2

Simon Curtis

Go on now to get my mind
And how you did me wrong?
Told the dj all about it
Fuck up there I'll play my song

The cover to the doorway
Is much to my surprise
I see the devil grin
And look right into my eyes

Yeah, you want me
I can tell you do
I fell your eyes are over me
A-across the room
Oh, come get me, baby
I tell you no lie
I do like getting gay and say
I'm fucking you tonight

You will never break my heart in two
I used to crumble baby, now I'm blue
This time I'm feeling so new
You, you, you won't break my heart in two

You will never break my heart in two
I used to crumble baby, now I'm blue
This time I'm feeling so new
You, you, you won't break my heart in two

Here's a little secret
That I don't mind if you share
I never really love you
And I never really care
But you lookin' so delicious
That I'm ready to release

Call me kit and you be kat
Now, c'mon and break me off a piece

Yeah, you want me
I can tell you do
I fell your hands upon me
For we make it to your room
Oh, come get me, baby
I tell you no lie
It's gonna be amazing
If you seek amy tonight

You will never break my heart in two
I used to crumble baby, now I'm blue
This time I'm feeling so new
You, you, you won't break my heart in two

You will never break my heart in two
I used to crumble baby, now I'm blue
This time I'm feeling so new

(Break, break, break my heart)
