

On The Wings Of A Dream

Simon Curtis

There's a fever inside me, it's taken hold somehow I couldn't even hide it if I tried. Oh oh ohhh
I here the song
a song
I never heard till' now
Oh oh ohhh
I think I'm gonna
Take a chance tonight
All that I've been wait'n for, to turn the key and unlock the door.
It's all so clear so clear
Just stand'n here
I've finally found my way
So here's an invitation invitation
To my own celebration
On the wings of a dream In your eyes I can fly so high, on the wings of a dream, See me now as I touch the sky
Tonight's the night
My dreams come true
Yeah
You always said they would oooo
Watch me fly away
On the wings of a dream
On the wings of a dream
On the wings of a dream
On the wings of a dream
dream
There's one burden ever
Ever
That's turn'n to a flame, Yeah, Now we got a shining light get us ohh no Even live'n from day to day day to day
I have untill my base
Oh oh ohh
I never thought of letting go or giving in
The game is on and I wanna play I'll take my step cause' I'm here to say
From way up here the moons so clear the stars are in my sigh.
Well I'm never looking down, and never touch'n you
On the wings of a dream
Yeah
In your eyes I can fly so high, On the wings of a dream, See me now as I touch the sky
Tonight's the night my dreams come true
Tomorrow I hear skies are blue
Watch me sail away,
On the wings of a dream
If you only believe

On the wings of a dream
Life is all that it seems
On The wings of a drea, drea, drea drea, drea, drea
drea, drea, drea
On The Wings of a dream.
