

Sugar Sugar White

Simon Curtis

How can i ever make you see, whats said i do to you, you do to me, but.. nob ody seems to see a problem
Am i the only one who isn't like them
Judge me, because i am not like you
Isn't that the thing were not supposed to do.

Bring me fame,
But you will soon disprove me.
Seize the hate... you haven't, cannot see

You look at me and see a little sugar sugar white
Is that enough to say that she ain't your fucking appetite
Is that so wrong to show a little repositry
Cause i want to treat you mother fuckers how your treating me
Don't point a finger, because your just a fucking hypocrite
You've played the cards so long and now i've had enough of it.

Matter of fact
Retract to my pact
To hatch my flat back
Can't let you attack me

Am i the reason you ashame me
Is that for all the wrong you blame me
I'm never ever condecended
Now come on, brother we got to end it

Bring me fame,
But you will soon disprove me.
Seize the hate... you haven't, cannot see

You look at me and see a little sugar sugar white
Is that enough to say that she ain't your fucking appetite
Is that so wrong to show a little repositry
Cause i want to treat you mother fuckers how your treating me
Don't point a finger, because your just a fucking hypocrite
You've played the cards so long and now i've had enough of it.

Matter of fact
Retract to my pact
To hatch my flat back
Can't let you attack me

Ahhhhhhhhh.....

I only speak the truth

You look at me and see a little sugar sugar white
Is that enough to say that she ain't your fucking appetite
Is that so wrong to show a little repositry
Cause i want to treat you mother fuckers how your treating me
Don't point a finger, because your just a fucking hypocrite

Is that so wrong to show a little repository
Cause i want to treat you mother fuckers how your treating me
Don't point a finger, because your just a fucking hypocrite
