

Hello

Simple Minds

Hello I can feel the whole world breathing when you sigh.
Hello. and no stick nor stone could split us if they try.

Lush that thing that multiplies.
Your trusted thing goes out on time.

Hello. season calls for me to think of change.
Hello. your body's driving me like molten flame.

Sunburst sees the harvest day,
Such wisp wheat will rise again.

I never want to be that proud.
Nothing much to say.
I'd rather turn the thing around and take a chance to drift,
Drift away.

Hello. I think I know your name.
Hello. let's try to meet again.

Hello.
Hello.
Hello.'cause I'm sure our fantasies are about the same.
And this planet shudder secrets not to blame
