

Saturday Girl

Simple Minds

And your love comes tumbling down,
And you walk right in, your heart going round.
You tell me that you'll be back early.
But you know I'll be a while.

Ooh Saturday Girl.
Ooh Saturday Girl.
When you drop by, I want to see you cry.
Ooh Saturday Girl.

When you go through the tunnel of life,
You're gonna open your eyes.
But you could cut the atmosphere with a knife around here,
'Cos you know there is no compromise.

Ooh Saturday Girl.
Ooh Saturday Girl.
When you drop by, I want to see you cry.
Ooh Saturday

When the moon lights up the street like diamonds,
And all is still and quiet once again,
I like to pull you here and whisper in your ear,
Tell you what about the lonely man.
Ooh Saturday Girl.

Is somebody there?
I said is somebody there?
I can see you there.
I can feel you there.
I know that love is around.
I know that it's gonna be right.
I know that it's gonna be right.
If I could meet you over there.
I would come over there.
I know it's gonna be alright.

Ooh Saturday Girl.
Ooh Saturday Girl.
When you drop by, I want to see you cry.
Ooh Saturday

Just think about it.
Aah think about it.
Come on think about it.
Go on think about it.
Just think about it.
Go on think about it.
Ooh, come on think about it
