

P.S. I Hate You

Simple Plan

Dear Sophia

I think I'm better off without you!

Like a polaroid picture

I can still see you in my mind

In your Def Leppard t-shirt

I say I was yours

You said you were mine

We started a fire

A fire like no-one's ever seen before

There was something about you

There was something about you

But then you beat my heart up

Left it black and blue

Now I wish I never met you

Dear Sophia

I think I'm better off without you!

I kinda miss ya

Making out all night

Like we used to

We were good together

But now the things you've done we can't undo

So don't write me back

P.S. I hate you

You can bury the fake tears

We don't even need one last goodbye

I'll see you in 10 years

Or maybe we should make that 45

My darling, it's over

And now the fairytale is up in flames

I hope he was worth it

Yeah, I hope he was worth it

And if there's one thing in this life I know it's true

It's that I wish I never met you

Dear Sophia

I think I'm better off without you!

I kinda miss ya

Making out all night like we used to

We were good together

But now the things you've done we can't undo

So don't write me back

P.S. I hate you

I hope one day you'll fall in love with someone new

Just when you think it's true

He breaks your heart in two

Just like you did to me

Just like you did to me

Dear Sophia

I think I'm better off without you!

I kinda miss ya

Making out all night like we used to
We were good together
But now the things you've done we can't undo
So don't write me back
P.S. I hate you
P.S. I hate you

(Dear Sophia)
So don't write me back
P.S. I hate you
(Dear Sophia)
P.S. I hate you
(Dear Sophia)
Don't write me back
P.S. I hate you
