

Beside You

Simply Red

We follow the river out into the stream
That's when my dream began
I left my worries to the people who stare
And dream without a care

That I'll always be beside you
To watch the day and night
And we listen to the sun rise
And feel its glowing light
And peace will come inside so quiet

Wherever we're going, I don't know
A million years our love keeps growing
The mystery deepens, day by day
Trust my love, and hear me say

That I'll always be beside you
To watch the day and night
And we listen to the sun rise
And feel its glowing light
And peace will come inside so quiet

And peace will come inside so quiet

Yes I'll always be beside you
To watch the day and night
And we listen to the sun rise
And feel its glowing light
And peace will come inside so quiet

Yes peace will come inside so quiet
