

I Have The Love

Simply Red

We all need somebody who's proud and believes
Who hears what you need who's found underneath

I have the love of a woman
I have the love of a woman

Gaze at me look at me listen to me now
As I show you what true love can do
Days are to praise what you've given me now
Every day feels something new

I have the love of a woman
I have the love of a woman
It's you that I need
The truth is how good we can be

Cos I love a woman
So what could I need
I love you woman yeah
That is all it's in her I believe

I have the love of a woman
I have the love of a woman
It's you that I need
The beauty you give lives in me

Cos I love a woman
What could I need
I love you woman
What could I need
I love you woman
I love love
Love

I love that girl
I always will
I love that woman
I love you girl
