

Love Wonders

Simply Red

Love wanders like the wind
Breathes out of you from within
Shines up your personality
Glistens through the rainbow of vitality
Remembers where you've been
Until there's true love
She wanders like the wind

Cool hearts quake while she blows
Whistles as she breaks and leaves you cold
Heals up your personality
Makes you less afraid of your mortality
Remembers where you've been
Until there's true love
She wanders like the wind

As for the lonely she comes and she goes
Where she is going nobody knows
Torn from the places that you want to be
Until you surrender to her harmony
Until there's true love
You'll wander like the wind

You will wander
You will wonder
You'll wander like the wind
