

Laugh, cry, born, die
Where, why, hail or dew
Black, white, red or blue
Which one are you?
Lost, found, above, underground
Peace, war, less, more
False, true, grease or blue
Which one are you?

Are you today, or yesterday's news?
Whichever way
It's up to you

Who you are is the road you take
(Which one are you? Which one are you?)
Who you are is the road you take
(Which one are you? Which one are you?)

Rich, poor, saint, whore
Rob the bank or call the law
Light, dark, old, new
Which one are you?
Are you today or yesterday's news?
Whichever way
It's up to you

Truth, lied, refuse a bribe
Dead, alive, four or five
Black, white, red or blue
Which one are you?

(Which one are you, which one are you)

Are you today or yesterday's news?
Whichever way, it's up to you

Who you are is the road you take
(Which one are you? Which one are you?)
Who you are is the road you take, from the world you knew
(Which one are you? Which one are you?)
