Crying Shame

Since October

I follow the leader when I am blind But it's gone way too far this time It's open season on the weakened mind They're dying one breath at a time

I'm dying to survive and barely getting by
What a crying shame
I'm standing on the edge, as close as I can get
What a crying shame

I'm not backing down from your threat this time Refuse to fake my way through this life But I'm on the edge and beaten to the core And I've never been this close before

I'm dying to survive and barely getting by
What a crying shame
I'm standing on the edge, as close as I can get
What a crying shame

I'm standing on the edge, as close as I can get

I'm dying to survive and barely getting by
What a crying shame
I'm standing on the edge, as close as I can get
What a crying shame

Hanging off the edge What a crying shame

Hanging off the edge
