

Good luck means nothing to me so exactly what does that mean for me now have I given up on almost everything my scars are easy to see haunting reminders indeed and they still bleed for the first time I'm down on my knees

Begging, pleading now intercede please
show me how

If I could survive
if I was innocent, would you take the blame for me
if I could survive
if I was innocent, would you take the blame for me

You're asking nothing of me just say good bye and I'm free it's so easy, I don't understand but I want it more than anything can't seem to begin to release this guilty conscience for peace it's so hard till I'm back here I'm back on my knees

Begging, pleading now

if I was innocent, would you take the blame for me
if I could survive
if I was innocent, would you take the blame for me

Guilt has got the best of me i'm holding on to almost nothing wondering if innocence could ever lead to my forgiveness

If I could survive
if I was innocent, would you take the blame for me
if I could survive
if I was innocent, would you take the blame for me

Blame for me
would you take the blame for me, guilty
blame for me
blame for me
would you take the blame for me
