

My Heart

Since October

Pain is all I ever feel when I'm not with you Lately I've been noticing this angst just wont go Wasted opportunities to heal our wounds
Faking that I am okay with the way I lost you

My hands are reaching I'd give anything to touch your heart to mine

(This I know) There's only one thing I can't let you know
And this is my heart
This is my heart

Why can't I tell you what I'm dying to say?
I'm killing myself with my only shame
Try, I try to understand why I feel all alone
Pride is all I've ever known and I'm not letting go

My hands are reaching I'd give anything to touch your heart to
mine

(This I know) There's only one thing I can't let you know
And this is my heart
This is my (heart) Heart

When I'm with you
I'm not slowly
Did I tell you?

My hands are reaching I'd give anything to touch your heart to
mine

(This I know) There's only one thing I can't let you know
And this is my heart
This is my heart (THIS IS FOR YOU)
This is my heart
