

The Way You Move

Since October

You walk in the room
Every eye on you
It's an attraction for every view
With every step you prove
Your confidence is true
I watch the victims line up just to fall for you

I'm so caught up in the way you move

I know that I've already been here before
And I know that I promised myself no more
But there's something about you girl
Something about the way you move
That's making me want to believe.
Maybe you maybe me we can try it and see
You got me thinking that you're everything perfect for me
'Cause there's something about you girl
Something about the way you move
That's making me want to believe
Just something about the way you move

Curiosity has got the best of me
I can't ignore the beauty of your mystery
It's all or nothing now are you my destiny
I prayed forever it's the only possibility

I'm so caught up in the way you move

I know that I've already been here before
And I know that I promised myself no more
But there's something about you girl
Something about the way you move
That's making me want to believe.
Maybe you maybe me we can try it and see
You got me thinking that you're everything perfect for me
Cause there's something about you girl
Something about the way you move
That's making me want to believe
Just something about the way you move

There's something about you

I will always remember the day
That you came a moving my way
And every piece of me wanted to run away
But you're worth the chance to take
A perfect love that I know can't be wrong
A perfect love is why I sing this song
Together you and me will always beat the odds
Come with me

(soft voice)

I know that I've already been here before

I know that I've already been here before
And I know that I promised myself no more
But there's something about you girl

Something about the way you move
That's making me want to believe.
Maybe you maybe me we can try it and see
You got me thinking that you're everything perfect for me
Cause there's something about you girl
Something about the way you move
That's making me want to believe

Just something about the way you move (2x)
