The worst is yet to come, so vulnerable and dumb say the words and I'll dissolve

Tell me how long should this last I've been forgetting how to a ct and

These memories will burn like gasoline

And I believe there's something more cause this isn't what I've been looking for

If I blink my eyes I'm afraid I might miss some of it
This makes no sense a mirage of an oasis but it kills my time
Well try to remember what I sought, I never gave it that much t hought

Does it really matter at all, cause there really is no time for opening up my eyes

Cause you know that I have seen it all before

And I believe there's something more cause this isn't what I've been looking for

If I blink my eyes I'm afraid I might miss some of it
This makes no sense a mirage of an oasis but it kills my time
Well I wish I could always feel this good, I wish that I could always feel this way,

Wish I could always feel this good, wish that I could always kn ow what's out there

Cause I believe there's something more, cause this isn't what I 've been looking for

If I blink my eyes I'm afraid I might miss some of it this This makes no sense a mirage of an oasis but it kills my time I wish I could always feel this good, I wish that I could always feel this way,

I wish I could always feel this good, wish that I could be imit ating the screen imitating the screen if you hate something it goes away if you hate something then just wait.
