Success Has Made a Failure of Our Home

Sinéad O'connor

We used to go out walking hand in hand You told me all the big things you had planned It wasn't long till all your dreams came true Success put me in second place with you You have no time to love me anymore Since fame and fortune knocked up on our door And i spend all my evenings all alone Success has made a failure of our home If we could share an evening now and then I'm sure we'd find true happiness again You never hold me like you used to do Oh, it's funny what success has done to you You have no time to love me anymore Since fame and fortune knocked up on our door And i spend all my evenings all alone Success has made a failure of our home Success has made a failure of our home I never changed I'm still the same I never changed Stop what you're saying You're killing me And am i not your girl? Am i not your girl? . . Am i not
