

I have come to claim my throne again seek revenge on you Sir Fortesque though my army is beyond the grave I shall cast a spell and watch them rise

I call upon them to return break from your graves unholy ones!

My name is Zarok the sorcerer
I just want to take back what's mine lead my militia to overthrow this realm you have intruded on sacred ground unaware of the magic it beholds

I have been TO HELL AND now I'm BACK
I will show no mercy, so beware! may the demonds fallbefore you now like the wheat before the sharpened scythe

You may have won the battle now but I shall surely win the war!

My name is Zarok the sorcerer
I just want to take back what's mine
lead my militia to overthrow this realm
you have intruded on sacred ground
unaware of the magic it beholds

You have been defeated, cast aside this is my domain so don't return I have achieved immortality thanks to you beloved Gallowmere

Now on to take over the world this time my mission will succeed!

My name is Zarok the sorcerer
I just want to take back what's mine
lead my militia to overthrow this realm
unaware of the magic it beholds

My name is Zarok the sorcerer
I just want to take back what's mine
lead my militia to overthrow this realm
you have intruded on sacred ground
unaware of the magic it beholds
