Into the Blind World

The sin of sodomy within the seventh circle Her hapless wretched soul torn apart Circle of heresy, a thirst for war Now left for dead to be consumed

Screaming ancient incantations Mindless creatures serve as beast for war Religious signs and deformation Now left for dead to be… consumed

Tamed by the fallen The ruling class of hell Relentlessness of a starving hound Circle of heresy, a thirst for war Now left for dead to be consumed ...

Into the blind world with a bloody revolt Charlatan of desecration, bow for me you whore

Into the blind world Death is all I see Into the blind world Death is all I see

Stabbing and killing In greater numbers they will come Destined to face the ominous specter of death Begging and raping Unholy sins of the darkened path Bow for your master, eternal flame of fire

Into the blind world Death is all I see With common blindness comes this great mystery Their frail bodies are left behind Contain this intolerable rage A part of this dying kind
