The flesh infused with chems and ready to be cut

The skin of a crippled The legacy of wrath

Raincoat against all fear A protection of the flesh

They need precise incision an act of distress

Permitted by the absence of a mortal in live

Preparation of the future in the gloss of a knife

Here is the saviour to watch over the undead

To hold life and pain for there is no better dread

"Cut! Decision! Death! Permission!

Gap! Disease! Skin!
Displease...

... The saviour! The pain will increase!"
