

In the Heart of the Young

Sinner

In the Heart of the Young

There's a fire in the heart of the young
Human temples drawing power from the sun
Raising sails, navigating the dawn

Hear the thunder, now, we're a million strong

(Whoa) The light shines in the heart of the young
(Whoa) We're fighting for a new way to say
Carry on, and see behind this material
Illusion, the future of all is alive in the heart of the young

There's a song in the heart of the young
Loud and clearly, the band goes marchin' on
With the force of a thousand gods
Hear the music, we're a million strong

(Whoa) Put your trust in the heart of the young (Whoa) The rise of the rebellion
Has just begun, the trumpets sound off the countdown for a
New day's dawn, the future of all will survive, it's alive

Show me you're still alive!

(Solo)

There's a fire in the heart of the young
See the lightning strike the curtain
With the force of a thousand gods
Hear the thunder, it's in the heart of the young

(Whoa) Don't you feel it burn in the heart of the young
(Whoa) We're fighting for a new way to say
Carry on, the trumpets sound off the countdown for a New day's dawn, the future of all is alive in the heart of the young

The future of all will survive it's alive (repeats out)
