

The Biggest Lie

Sinner

The Biggest Lie

She's tough, she's rough- a full blooded girl but the danger talks

She's cool, not everybody's fool, she can handle the heat with you

Her trace- true lies, I saw her messing with you wrong stuff

I found her body lying down in the deepest gutter

It hits me like a hammer

No logic of instinct

I never know the reason

She's dying in my arms, I don't know why

The spoon, the needle are the biggest lie

Face to face, no enemy can hold me back,

I stop breathing I stop talking -My heart stop beating

Win or lose- second if you rely on dope,

Why did she take

The wrong train without me

It hits me like a hammer

No logic of instinct

I never know the reason

She's dying in my arms, I don't know why

The spoon, the needle are the biggest lie
