

Trouble

Sinner

Trouble

She looks up, wiped the tears from your eyes
She's fourteen, wants her father to die
Sadism sucks, mother surrenders on fear

She ain't gonna cry, nothing left to feel
He will never turning, her heart was burning
Eye to eye, her cradle was rocked, run away
Hang tough, troublemaker
Hang tough, you're not to blame
Hang tough, troublemaker
He's burning now in flames
She woke up, he slapped her face
Darkened the room, tried to violate her
She tried to talk, he made her a fool
Look out, it could happen near you
Neighbors don't listen, swallow the pain
She planned her vengeance today, run away
Hang tough, troublemaker
Hang tough, you're not to blame
Hang tough, troublemaker
He's burning now in flames
One shot, his blood congeals in tears
Will a judge listen, can he repeat her fourteen years
Hang tough, troublemaker
Hang tough, you're not to blame
Hang tough, troublemaker
He's burning now in flames
