

Sometimes

Siobhán Donaghy

You tell me you love me,
Then you tell me you don't
You tell me little lies and I wish that you won't
Only sometimes, only sometimes.

You tell me you miss me,
Then you tell me you don't
You promise to ring me, then you say you forgot
Only sometimes, only sometimes

My friends all adore you,
Say I'm losing the plot.
How can I grumble when I've got what I've got?
Only sometimes, only sometimes

I act like it's cool,
That it's not going too fast
But deep down I'm shaking really want this to last
Not just sometimes, not just sometimes

Ah hah

You tell me you love me,
Then you tell me you don't
You tell me little lies and I wish that you won't
Only sometimes, only sometimes

You tell me you miss me,
Then you tell me you don't
You promise to ring me, then you say you forgot
Only sometimes, only sometimes
