

Found You Out

Sir Sly

I'm running tired of this complex
I was jealous, knowing that you wanted more
I assure

How was it?
Did you get it faster?
I hope it's everything you want and more
There's the door

A taker and a giver
Oh you make me shiver
Could not deliver
Oh I guess I found you out

My table didn't need a Judas
Your pride turned you into Brutus now
Now
Get paid and tell you couldn't cover
I lost a confidant and lover now
Oh now

A taker and a giver
Oh you make me shiver
Could not deliver
Oh I guess I found you
A taker and a giver
Oh you make me shiver
Could not deliver
Oh I guess I found you out
Oh I guess I found you out

(Yeah) I was so sick of it- your lies and selfishness
I'll be the bigger man while you act like you're innocent
No matter where you go, your lies will follow you
You think you're back on the top but the back rows will swallow you

A taker and a giver
Oh you make me shiver
Could not deliver
Oh I guess I found you out
Oh I guess I found you out

Now I know we didn't fit
I wish I could've quit
Did having sex with other men make you feel you were relevant?
Just for the hell of it
You make me feel like shit
I fell in love but soon I met you
Now I'm over it
