

Miracle

Sir Sly

Go home and wash your feet
And say that you want more of me
The bloodstains are on your teeth
And this is more than I can speak on

Speaking slowly
Know that I won't touch you
Breathe in slowly
Know that I can't love you

I just want what I can't have and I can't have a miracle
I just want what I can't have
and I can't have a miracle at all
At all, at all

This often let me be Digging down and underneath
The water's under the bridge
The times from when I was a kid

Speaking slowly
Know that I won't touch you
Breathe in slowly
Know that I can't love you

I just want what I can't have
and I can't have a miracle
I just want what I can't have
and I can't have a miracle at all
At all, at all, can't have a miracle at all
At all, at all

Speaking slowly
Know that I won't love you, I
Breathe in slowly
Know that I won't love you

I just want what I can't have
and I can't have a miracle
and I can't have a miracle at all
At all, at all, can't have a miracle at all
At all, at all, at all
At all, at all, at all
At all, at all, at all
