

At Your Worst

Sister Hazel

I'm never one to fall to pieces
I'm always steady as she goes
I listened hard to all the teachers
The more I know, the less I know
Oh let me in
Let me be the way
If you don't know me by now, I don't know what to say
You can push me around, I'll be here anyway
And I deserve you at your best
Cause I loved you at your worst

Like a tree that's full of peaches
In the middle of your orange grove
You're like the sand down on the beaches
Going wherever winds may blow
Oh let me in
Let me be the way
If you don't know me by now, I don't know what to say
You can push me around, I'll be here anyway
I deserve you at your best
Cause I loved you at your worst

Oh think it over

Oh let me in
Let me be the way
If you don't know me by now, I don't know what to say
You can push me around, I'll be here anyway
And I deserve you at your best
Cause I loved you at your worst
At your worst
