

Dreamers

Sister Hazel

Just turn around
Turn away from me
Before I lose my head
Just turn around
But remember me
And how you left me dead inside

We were
Gonna be different
Now where did those
Dreamers go

I was the one who would paint the stars
And watch you while you slept
You were the one who held my heart
And smiled as it leapt inside

We were
Gonna be different
Now where did those
Dreamers go
Well I guess they died
We got older
And when you lied
Didn't have to

I don't know where I should go from here
Cause I never expected this of us
I'm only hanging on by a string
I don't know anything anymore
You didn't have to
Didn't have to
