

In the Moment

Sister Hazel

Well if you're wondering

Where I've been all evening

If you think that I've drifted off

Without leavin' here I've finally found the answers

Don't worry, I'm not lost

I'm in the moment

The one where nothing matters

And everything's alright

I'm seeing things so clearly now

And you're the reason why

I'm in the moment

And I've alive

I'm alive

I've been restless but you have been so patient

Well I carelessly wasted my time

But you left the door open

And you kept the light on

You waited for me to arrive

Well I've finally come around

And now I see

Every road has taken me

Where I wanna be

I wanna be

Chorus

I'm alive

[Repeat 3x]
