

See Me Beautiful

Sister Hazel

You see me differently than I've ever seen myself
You hear me clearly when I haven't spoken
I wake from the dream when I thought from a doubt
But you said I don't know what I'm talking about this time
That I keep myself from flying

Inside I'm dying, I hide from the lie, you see me beautiful, you see me beautiful
I roar like a lion, an unlovable sight but you see me beautiful
, you see me beautiful

You see the world differently of the places that you call home
You hear the song clearly before it is written
I wake from the dream when I run from a doubt
But you said I don't know what I'm talking about this time
That I keep myself from flying

Inside I'm dying I hide from the lie but you see me beautiful,
you see me beautiful
I roar like a lion, an unlovable sight, but you see me beautiful, you see me

In the morning to another day, twisting and dodging the drops of rain
Now I know what I wanna be, it's what you already see yeah

Yeah, inside I'm dying, I hide from the light, but you see me beautiful, you see
I roar like a lion, an unlovable sight, but you see me beautiful, you make me beautiful, you make me, you make me beautiful
You make me, you make me
