

Every time I turn my head
They all vanish but I sense their breath
Well God knows if these people are real?
And I'm falling keep on falling

All cheap shots make me blinded by fear
I've quit speaking no one ever hears
This world was never meant for me
And I'm crawling always crawling

-A little each day
takes this fear inside of me
-Nail by nail
A piece from reality
By all the morbid faces I see
They never rest and never sleep
-Nail by nail
Take this fear inside of me
-A little each day
So close but out of reach
It never rest s and never sleeps
Never rest and never sleep

Dark clouds seem to block out the sun
One thousand roads but nowhere to run
All these voices keep screaming to me
Can you hear them do you hear them?

In my mind I'm never alone
This small cell is a crowded room
Hey doc is this solitude?
Can you seem them do you see them?

-A little each day
takes this fear inside of me
-Nail by nail
A piece from reality
By all the morbid faces I see
They never rest and never sleep
-Nail by nail
Take this fear inside of me
-A little each day
So close but out of reach
It never rest s and never sleeps
Never rest and never sleep

takes this fear inside of me
A piece from reality
By all the morbid faces I see
They never rest and never sleep
-Nail by nail
Take this fear inside of me
-A little each day
So close but out of reach
It never rest s and never sleeps
Never rest and never sleep
Never sleep

-Nail by nail
-A little each day
Never sleep
-Nail by nail
