Pretty Baby

Sister Sledge

Pretty baby grew into a lady The people don't know What your mama know, they don't Pretty baby

In the light of the dawn A pretty babe was born Her mother, she had sworn To take good care of her

Every night Mom would pray Her life would not be torn Her clothes would not be worn Until they dropped off of her

My child, you dear Don't have no fear, I'll shed the tears Keep your head clear, my pretty baby

Pretty baby grew into a lady The people don't know What your mama know, they don't Pretty baby

Little girl, I want you to attend the finest schools And never be a fool, I've got experience Learn all that you can, you'll find that in the end You'll learn how to depend on yourself

It makes me glad You have the things I didn't have Never be sad, my pretty baby

Pretty baby grew into a lady The people don't know What your mama know, they don't Pretty baby

The people don't know What your mama know, they don't The people don't know What your mama know, they don't

The people don't know What your mama know, they don't The people don't know What your mama know, they don't

Pretty baby grew into a lady Pretty baby grew into a lady

The people don't know What your mama know, they don't The people don't know What your mama know, they don't Pretty baby Pretty baby grew into a lady Pretty baby grew into a lady

The people don't know What your mama know, they don't The people don't know What your mama know, they don't Pretty baby
