

Body and Soul

The Sisters of Mercy

I stand here before you with heart in my hand,
Ev'ry edge of me is yours to command.
Loving you (ooh-hoo)
With my body and soul (ooh-hoo).

Now I've seen they've danger, those kisses of fire
Are burning me to the point of desire.
Loving you (ooh-hoo)
With my body and soul (ooh-hoo).

Forever I'm yours with my body and soul,
A victim of your eyes and lips for more.
A special way you've of me under control,
And I know I surrender
With my body and soul! Soul!

You own me completely, I'll never be free,
Or I wonder how this could just happen to me.
Loving you (ooh-hoo)
With my body and soul (ooh-hoo).

Forever I'm yours with my body and soul,
A victim of your eyes and lips for more.
A special way you've of me under control,
And I know I surrender
With my body and soul! Soul!

I stand here before you with heart in my hand,
Ev'ry edge of me is yours to command.
Loving you...
Body and soul.

Forever and ever I'm yours with my body and soul,
A victim of your eyes and lips for more.
A special way you've of me under control,
And I know I surrender
With my body and soul! Soul! Soul! Soul!
