In the heat of the night In the heat of the day

When I close my eyes When I look your way When I meet the fear that lies inside
When I hear you say In the heat of the moment Say, say, say

R: Some day, some day, some day, -Dominion Come a time
  Some day, some day,
some day, -Dominion Some say prayers
Some say prayers I say mine

In the light of the fact On the lone and level Sand stretch far away
In the heat of the action In the settled dust Hold hold and swing
In the meeting of mined Down in the streets of shame In the betting of names on gold to rust
In the land of the blind Be... King, king, king, king

We serve an old moan in a dry season, A lighthouse keeper in the desert sun
Dreamers of sleepers and white treason, We dream of rain and the history of the gun
There's a lighthouse in the middle of Russia A white house in a red square I'm living in films for the sake of Russia A Kino Runner for the
And the fifty-two daughters of the revolution Turn the gold to chrome Gift...nothing to lose, Stuck inside of Memphis with the mobile home, sing:

Mother Russia Mother Russia
Mother Russia rain down down down
Mother Russia Mother Russia
Mother Russia rain down down down
