

Ascension

[SITD:]

Everything around was in brightness
Scenes of life went through my mind
A feeling of floating out of my body
Embraced by a beautiful light

I found myself in a profound stillness
Beyond God's infinity
Now I could perceive my "forever"
A new reality revealed to me

White light
Tunnel
Slowmotion
Ascension

I never wanted anything
As much as to go into that light
I never wanted anything
As much as to continue the ride

I've never felt such a vibration
A peaceful feeling came over me
I was in the eye of the creation
Close to light, my N.D.E.
