

All Over Again

Siti Nurhaliza

v1.

Sometimes your life

Can seem like it's not moving

Thoughts keep on drifting

Takes all of your time,

But I know

Sometimes in life

It falls apart

We can take it in strides

And in time, they say

Pre hook

Everybody gets a new beginning

Everybody's got a will to change

You can climb to the highest mountain

Nothing can hold you back

Hook

You're always caught up in a crazy life

(we take)

So much for granted we can't see what you have

(and I know)

You can keep pushing through the hardest times

You will find your way

We can start all over again

Again we can start all over again

v2

In time you'll find,

People around you changing

Time keeps on moving

Friends fading away, but I know

Through time, you'll find

You're not alone

Put some trust in yourself

Search within, and you'll find

Pre hook

Everybody gets a new beginning

Everybody's got a will to change

You can climb to the highest mountain

Nothing can hold you back

Hook

You're always caught up in a crazy life

(we take)

So much for granted we can't see what you have

(and I know)

You can keep pushing through the hardest times

You will find your way

We can start all over again

Again we can start all over again

Bridge

All you are

Everything you do

It take's all that you have

And give all that you got

Although it

Seems like it's nearing the end

Hook

You're always caught up in a crazy life

(we take)

So much for granted we can't see what you have

(and I know)

You can keep pushing through the hardest times

You will find your way

We can start all over again

Again we can start all over again
