Light Hates Me

Six Degrees of Separation

Light hates me Conspiracy of light - sundogs hunting me I can't run, I can't fight - blaze pins right through me Cruel spears of light, poisoned tongues of sun Razors of bright try to put me down Flames from above burn the soil around I stumble and fall what shelter can I find Cruel spears of light, poisoned tongues of sun Razors of bright try to put me down Light hates me, light hates me Light hates me, light hates me The hate of light as sharp as a storm The light hates me since I was born Night it's on my side, it's my shield, it's my bride Night it's on my side, it's my shield, it's my bride The hate of light as sharp as a storm The light hates me since I was born Last seed of truth you had never seen Protected by flash hidden inside me Tyranny of light will not come to be Single beam of dark (and night will reappear) Light hates me, light hates me Light hates me, light hates me
