

Separated

Six Degrees of Separation

And our souls bleed and our souls starve lost in maze
Misunderstood, misjudged and cursed without chance
Two broken hearts on ruins of love but still in flames
Like dying swans with their wistful tones all in vain
We're separated!!!

Cold twilight world has come to us it's come to stay
Cold twilight world will soothe the pain and love as well
Dried bitter tears staining the face of our life
Still opened scars soul taste of blood dirty knife
We're separated!!!

And this is what we are and more we are our lovers and our whor es

We recognize our tired faces, we recognize this cursed places
We think we know who we are being afraid to go to far
We pretend we understand, well all we do is we pretend
We're separated!!!

Yes, we can be alone

Alone in our dreams, alone in our ecstasy

Alone in our fears, alone with our tears

Yes, we will stay alone

Dried bitter tears staining the face of our life
Still opened scars soul taste of blood dirty knife
We're separated!!!
