

Deathklaat

Six Feet Under

I'm going straight to hell to burn in flames with the devil fuck the Church and that Christian shit my tombstone's carved with a seix six 6 i don't care about the lies that you preach alive to live, not to believe in a god that i cannot see

after death
enter life
in the grave
to never wake
after death
enter life
into the dark
as flesh turns and rots the blood in my veins doth clot ill be smiling as i decompose as the rats eat my skin and bone no escape when death comes to call inside my skull maggots still crawl from the coffin your world looks so small the reaper awaits us all this is the deathklaat

in the grave
into the dark
