

Hard For Me

Six60

I wish that I could be all that you want of me
I wish that I could see all that you see in me
I wish that I could see all that you see in me

But you're making it hard for me, yeah, yeah
You're making it hard for me, yeah
But you're making it hard for me, yeah, yeah
You're making it hard for me, yeah, yeah

I saw the way you took it on yourself just to push it away
I wondered how I'm supposed to stay if there ain't a doubt
I'm holding on to every piece of light like the night to dawn
But you can't be seen, though you say it's me that tomorrow brings

Cos you're making it hard for me, yeah, yeah
You're making it hard for me, yeah
You're making it hard for me, yeah, yeah
You're making it hard for me, yeah, yeah

I know it's best so why don't we just put this all to rest
But I'll take the blame, we're only gonna wake this beast again

Go let it out
To hell with the rest
Cos now I know what you have
Is a little at bay

Cos you're making it hard for me, yeah, yeah
You're making it hard for me, yeah
But you're making it hard for me, yeah, yeah
You're making it hard for me, yeah
