

Barbarians (Prayers for the Blessed)

Sixx:A.M.

I am sick of being told how to feel by the old, the decrepit, and the greedy rich

I am sick of being lied to, tied to a chain gang, rats on a sinking ship

Do you wanna bleed? Gonna take a knee?

Are you gonna stand up? I am, I am

Show me what you got before you start to rot

Are you fucking ready 'cause I am, I am

It's more than a warning shot

We're all barbarians, everybody say Amen

Say a prayer for the blessed as they're dying in our hands

We're all barbarians, the end is coming soon

Say a prayer for the chosen while they choke on silver spoons

Everybody say Amen...

We're gonna steal the crown right off their heads

We're all barbarians

You can bury me infected, next to the rejected, somewhere in the valley of tears

You can wake up with a knife as you're coming back to life and they gut you as you're facing your fears

Do you wanna die? Are you gonna cry?

Are you gonna fight back? I am, I am

Are you gonna stop? Take it to the top?

Are you fucking ready 'cause I am, I am

It's more than a warning shot

We're all barbarians, everybody say Amen

Say a prayer for the blessed as they're dying in our hands

We're all barbarians, the end is coming soon

Say a prayer for the chosen while they choke on silver spoons

Everybody say Amen...

We're gonna steal the crown right off their heads

We're all barbarians

Barbarians

We're all barbarians, everybody say Amen

Say a prayer for the blessed as they're dying in our hands

We're all barbarians, the end is coming soon

Say a prayer for the chosen while they die with silver spoons

We're all barbarians, everybody say Amen

Say a prayer for the blessed as they're dying in our hands

We're all barbarians, the end is coming soon

Say a prayer for the chosen while they choke on silver spoons

And everybody say Amen...

We're gonna steal the crown right off their heads

We're all barbarians

We're all barbarians

We're all barbarians
