

That's Gonna Leave a Scar

Sixx:A.M.

I'm stressed out, I'm punctured
This is how it feels when you lose a war
You got a death wish, you got a Bible
And a lie that makes you beg for more

And every time I turn and kill my heart it's just to feel numb
And every time you dig into my skin it's like you smell blood

And that's gonna leave scar
My heart is shattered, you cut like a dagger
That's gonna leave a scar
It's no laughing matter, and you don't care that
That's gonna leave a, that's gonna leave a scar

I'm lifeless, I'm derailed
I'm blown up like an atomic bomb
And hell's gonna damn the road you're on

And every time I turn and kill my heart it's just to feel numb
And every time you dig into my skin it's like you smell blood

And that's gonna leave scar
My heart is shattered, you cut like a dagger
That's gonna leave a scar
It's no laughing matter, and you don't care that
That's gonna leave a, that's gonna leave a scar

And that's gonna leave scar
My heart is shattered, you cut like a dagger
That's gonna leave a scar
It's no laughing matter, and you don't care that

That's gonna leave a scar
My heart is shattered, you cut like a dagger
That's gonna leave a scar
It's no laughing matter, and you don't care that
That's gonna leave a, that's gonna leave a scar
