

I Myself Know

Sizzla

When people say they dont love, they never see progress
Wouldnt right to let them be alone
Whenever they say things, never you be upset
Just be kindhearted, Rastafari welcomes all at home
Now the people have been misled
All because of foolish reasons
How strongly do you hold your own?

Cause I myself know, that no man is an island, no man stand alone
Cause I myself know, without the Conquering
Lion I would never endure

When I heard them say play the music no more
I know theyve been wounded by truths and rights so pure
And if they should say do away with the true source, you know that theyre unfair
Hey, they dont know how this come about now
All His great wisdom buildeth a true house, withstand everlasting
Africa we shout like never before

Cause I myself know, that no man is an island, no man stand alone
I myself know, without the Conquering Lion, I would never endure

After all you know the world has been taught
To be the system, that downpress your very soul
You never know when they will lurks in the dark,
Willing to do the killing, for a dollar they knock you down cold
Corrupt in their heart, no trust whatsoever
Who is so clever, to be under their take hold

Cause I myself know, that no man is an island, no man stand alone
I myself know, without the Conquering Lion, I would never endure

When the people say there aint no love, they never see no progress
Wouldnt right to let them be alone
Whenever they say things, never you be upset
Just be kindhearted, Rastafari welcomes you at home
Now the people have been misled
All because of foolish reasons
How strongly do you hold your own?

Cause I myself know, that no man is an island, no man stand alone
I myself know, without the Conquering Lion, I would never endure

I myself know, that no man is an island, no man stand alone
I myself know
