

Moving On

Sizzla

Woo King Selassie I
(Out in the streets they call it murder)
Jah Rastafari
Fire bun ow yea ah oh oh oh yea ah yea

Where there's love there is hope
Where there's hope there is love
Where there's love there is Jah
Where there's Jah there's enough

They're some little fake I don't deal with them
Just a smile on their face but nuttin real with them
I stay by myself I don't deal with them
They're bad for my health don't agree with them
Live up be good keep the obedience
The try to frig me up my experience
One love rasta burn out the bad vibes
Live up be clean just a word of advice
You show me hate when you say you love me
Where is the faith now you start to judge me
That's my blessing you know I'm the real serial
I don't bow to material

I ain't goin' stop I'm moving on
No turning back so excuse me now
I ain't goin' stop I'm moving on
No turning back you can't confuse me now

Crime and violence not the right style
Be good be right maintain the lifestyle
Mommy taught me well keep a smile child
Daddy brought me up I'm not a spoil child
My family you can't bring down
No dirty garbage for you to fling down
Praise King Selassie thy will be done upon this earth 'til thy kingdom come
I know they will try to slander
My life they try to kill with propagander
Saying bad things now I shut them up
Bad mind people Jah cut them up

I ain't goin' stop I'm moving on
No turning back excuse me now
I ain't goin' stop I'm moving on
No turning back so excuse me now

Don't tell no lies repatriation
Don't mix up I in false accusation
The world sing my song my occupation
I'm a musician my presentation
A true Rastaman burstin with progress
Babylonians I'm not your suspect
God has set me free I won't take the blame
Equal rights and justice break the chains

I ain't goin' stop I'm moving on
No turning back don't confuse me now

I ain't goin' stop I'm moving on
No turning back don't confuse me now

Wow ah ah ah ah ah yea eh eh eh
Whoa oh oh oh oh oh oh

I ain't goin' stop I'm moving on
No turning back don't confuse me now
I ain't goin' stop I'm moving on
No turning back so excuse me now
