

Someone Loves You

Sizzla

Ohhhhhh
yeah yeah
Hey girl

You're feeling bluesy and all by yourself Need some loving I know how you felt got so much to give and no one to share it hoping someone will come by to help you care it saying to yourself,
"You just can't go on like this."
Much too long now, so much love that you miss Whoo
but when you think that you're alone here comes the love of your heart, here comes the love of your heart

Someone loves you baby
and deserves you lady you meant more than the world
someone loves you baby
you're worth more than the world

She anticipate my presence just to see mi step forth just to fill that gap now she wonder why she been left out girl, now your mine needless to worry about things that won't be daddy just like me be the man of the house

What's going on?
Girls getting jealous and girls get mi horny girl need loving tired to be alone she need to be by your side I think you should know Hey, Oh!
I think, I think you don't see her since you don't want someone else neither she won't stray because I know that I would lead her Hey, oh
