

It's Time to Go

Skarface

It's time to go now
The storm's coming too quick for waiting
It's time to leave now
Before everything has been kicking
Come on give up now
There's no shame if for once you don't win
Come right away now
There's nothing else you could be saving
Do you want to die? Well I don't know
Do you want to quit? Everything you love so
Do you want to fight? Against what can't be broke
Do you want to die? (Don't tell me it's worth for)
It's coming (2x)
Your ennemy has a battle to win
It's coming (2x)
Better leave now or face the devil
