

Rambo AK47

Skarface

My name is Rambo AK47, based on fatal big machine gun
I jump and I kill like anybody else
Years of training fit my body Soft on my sofa, I'm upon the best
The head in the screen I'm boss to put the mess
Soft on my sofa this ain't no more game
The head in my PC, I'm seeking for the fame
Now I'm bleeding and my weapon is empty
This butcher chief has nearly blow me
What's coming next, what's behind that door?
No backup left to restore that shit!
The world is so cruel when you want to save it
Even if I was its last resort
No one talk to me in this unreal reality
But promise: I will come back and win!
