

Game Over

Skarhead

Taking simple steps
That's all you do
Never pushing forward
Not one positive view
Lost hope in your own world
Down on your luck
Constant pain bellows in your head
Which is stuck

Painful situations made you this way
Too late you lost the game
No times out, no chance left
Here comes the instant death

You have one goal in life
Just to get by
Obligated by the outside world
Your acts can't be justified
Acts in your past
Have followed your senseless words
Now you've lost and your will
Will never be heard

The game is over, the time has come
Your life is shit, you're not the only one
People have problems that hit them all
You could not hang, you took the fall
