

I Wish

Skazi

I wish to give, to take, to make, to check, I wanna see it happen

I want to see, to be, the one that plays the game without no
Fears and regrets

I want to know you, better than I know myself

I want to feel the end, and enjoy the consequence

I'm playing the game

The one that will take me to my end

I'm waiting for the rain

To wash who I am

I want to move, to loose, to take the grooves, and to give it
All back

I want to take the time rewind, and to kick it right from the Start

To be unknown and all alone, lose the kind that are behind

To start a new play by myself and to give the best I have

I'm playing the game

The one that will take me to my end

I'm waiting for the rain

To wash who I am
