

Moonlight Promises

Skeeter Davis

Moonlight promises, moonlight promises
Mixed with kisses and sighs
Moonlight promises, moonlight promises
Soon turned into lies.

As you kiss me in the moonlight
I thought true love had begun
But your moonlight charms and warmth of your arms
Cool in morning sun.

Moonlight promises, moonlight promises
Mixed with kisses and sighs
Moonlight promises, moonlight promises
Soon turned into lies.

We vowed to be together to that star we wished upon
But your pledge was just a line
You broke this heart of mine
Just like the star you've gone.

Moonlight promises, moonlight promises
Mixed with kisses and sighs
Moonlight promises, moonlight promises
Soon turned into lies...
