

Bane of the Black Sword

Skelator

I see myself trapped inside this blade of horror, despair and destruction untold Aeons ago my legacy written, in my own grasp is the fate of the world

Hatred swells consuming my body, I hear the voices of those I betrayed

Now my hands are covered in their blood, I must keep fighting
I'm Ariocho's slave

Doomed to live forever on the edge of time

With Stormbringer at my side

Doomed to feed forever on the souls of enemies

And gain strength from the souls of the ones I loved

Bane of the Black Sword!

Eternal war!
